Mr. Stan Kesselman,

15 West 81 st.,

New York, N. Y., 10024.

Dear Stan:

check his offer

I have received the 1826 $2.50 Gold Piece described as very fine and am enclosing you herewith my check for $2000.00 in payment thereof.

Sorry you could not accept my offer on the other coins. The offer I made you is the very best I can do. It was about double Red Book. I will try the West Coast as coins are cheaper out there.

What about something in the double Eagle line? I still need an 1886, 1920 S, 1930 S, 1931, 1931 D and 1932. I have not made much effort to secure the St. Gaudens as so many were minted. No doubt many are in foreign lands. If the restrictions on gold are removed, in my opinion many will come home and the price of gold will drop.

Best wishes.

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

I talked with your Father last night by telephone and tried to get you today but your Mother said you were out so I decided to write. As your Father told you I'm sure I would appreciate your sending the 1849-C $1 and the 1848-C $2½ for my approval. One reason I wanted to talk with you was to ask if the 1854-O $3 is a strong VF of a border-line VF? And also, if you could give me any break on the $3 or the lot of three coins? If you have not sent the other two then you might consider sending the $3 according to your feelings about grade, etc.. I note you have a 1838-C $2½ XF at $500, I have a XF that I could sell to you for $430 if you sell your's and need another for stock, let me know. (430)

Will await hearing from you and thanks very much for list!

Dear Stan:

Thank you for the note regarding the 1808 two and one-half dollar gold coin which you have available at the present time. I am interested in such a coin but currently involved in negotiations for a less expensive piece. In the event that I decide on a coin as described in your letter, I will correspond with you in the event it is still available. I regret that I did not purchase the coin from you a year or so ago but these are things we learn as we go along.

With best regards, I remain

Dear Stanley:

Thanks very much for sending the gold coins on approval. I am keeping the 1848-C $2½ and a check for $100 is attached. The 1854-O $3 is nice but I'd like it a little stronger than this in order to pay $260 for it. Sure hate I missed the 1849-C $1. Do you have any other Charlotte that you can sell in the $100 to $125 range? If you do then please send on approval. I have many people who want a piece of Charlotte gold and will pay $100 to $150 but won't go more, they are not really collectors so the rare date mean nothing to them. Please do keep me up-to-date on Charlotte as it comes available.

Will look forward to hearing from you again!

Very truly yours,

James A. Sparks, Jr.

Mr. Stan Kesselman,

Dear Stan:

I received the 1864 S $5.00. It is a nice coin, but the price is entirely too high. I can't handle any more of these high priced coins until the market stabilizes. I am enclosing you herewith my check for $1350.00 in full settlement for the coin. It is doubtful if I can ever get the purchase price out of this coin, regardless of how long I may keep it. It is just too high.

Sincerely,

M. M. Long.

Dear Stan,

Your bid on my 2 1795 pieces was not the high bid. The highest was $500 more but part in trade, part on time, so I compromised with a dealer in Chicago at $100 less than the highest bid I received.

Thank you for your consideration.
